				continue with their Andy Warhol Soup Can Design. This week pupils must create another 3 soup designs that develop from their most successful design from last week. This process develops designs even further to gain the best final outcome. Once designs are completed, pupils must again choose the most successful and evaluate why. Part 2 – Pupils must create an intricate colour wheel design if not already completed from last week. Pupils must then fill out the google form quiz available on google classroom. This quiz assesses pupil colour knowledge and tests pupils on contrast colours and why they are used by artists. Pupils must then add colour to all 3 final designs and at least 1 contrast colour	Clear instructions can be found on google classroom on the latest assignment PowerPoint named 'Andy Warhol Soup Can Unit'. All instructions and photo references are supplied on the slides. Additionally, on this assignment post there are soup can templates if pupils want to print and use instead of drawing their own. Lastly, the google form colour quiz is also available on the assignment post.
